

REMINGTON BARRETT SMITH

EDUCATION

University of Missouri – Columbia, School of Law, Columbia, Missouri
JD, May 2008

Highest Grades: Products Liability A-, Trial Practice A-
Journal of Dispute Resolution (Published)
Law School Technology Committee

Truman State University, Kirksville, Missouri
BS in Business Administration / Management, Cum Laude, May 2005

LITIGATION

- Achieved amicable settlements in several plaintiff personal injury cases.
- Researched, prepared, and filed numerous multi-count petitions.
- Frequently research and coordinate with engineer and nurse life care planner.
- Defended client against a motion for protective order and a motion for attorney fees in a defendant class action suit.
- Argued against a motion to compel arbitration and an adult abuse order of protection.
- Prepared numerous discovery request packages in plaintiff tort cases.

LEGAL EXPERIENCE

Law Offices of Charlie Dickman, LLC, Kansas City, Missouri
Associate, September 2008 – Present
Law Clerk, June 2008 – September 2008

Since passing the Missouri bar, I began managing the diverse caseload of plaintiff civil actions for the firm. I am litigating or have litigated matters involving auto accidents, wrongful death, defective new home construction, property damage caused by toxic black mold, first party insurance disputes, employment discrimination, negligent hiring, false imprisonment, and the Missouri Unlawful Merchandising Practices Act.

Thomson-West (now Thomson Reuters), Columbia, MO
Student Westlaw Representative, 2006 – 2008

Langdon & Emison, Lexington, MO
Summer Law Clerk, 2006

CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION COURSES TAUGHT

MoBar Solo and Small Firm Conference, 2009
Jurassic Tech: So Easy a Caveman Could Put Together a Usable Computer System
Three Hands-on Coaching Labs in: PowerPoint, Excel, and Outlook